★★★ ESIGN ACT

(ESIGN, Pub.L. 106-229, 14 Stat.
464, enacted June 30, 2000, 15
U.S.C. ch. 96)

The Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act is a United States federal law passed by the U.S. Congress to facilitate the use of electronic records and electronic signatures in interstate and foreign commerce by ensuring the validity and legal effect of contracts entered into electronically. Although every state has at least one law pertaining to electronic signatures, it is the federal law that lays out the guidelines for interstate commerce.

★★★ LEGISLATION ★★★

June 30, 2000

President Bill Clinton signed the E-SIGN Act electronically. With the passage of this bill, electronic signatures and on-line contracts gained legal acceptance.

★★★ BIRTH OF DOCUSIGN ★★★

2003

DocuSign

Tom Gonser founded DocuSign in 2003. The philosophy behind DocuSign was to create a simple e-signature process that did not require software or digital certificates.

★★★ NATIONAL ESIGN DAY ★★★

June 30, 2010

In honor of the 10th Anniversary of ESIGN, DocuSign hosted the 2010 ESIGN Summit in San Francisco with a live keynote address by President Bill Clinton (via satellite) and presentations from industry visionaries.
